Gallini, Brian	Email Brian	Gallini Bio	Investigative Criminal Procedure: Inside This Century's Most (In)Famous Cases	West Academic Publishing	$254 (Hardcover) $190.50 (eBook) (Other options available)	Book URL	More than 68 million people have downloaded the hit podcast Serial and 19.3 million viewers have watched Netflix's documentary series, Making a Murderer. Both examples tell the true stories of criminal defendants' experiences with our justice system through footage or audio recordings of the actual trial—essentially opening the courtroom doors to the public at large. By relying heavily on practical materials to guide students through the substantive law, Investigative Criminal Procedure: Inside This Century's Most (In)Famous Cases does the same for law students. Each chapter focuses on specific “real-world” defendants such as James Holmes, OJ Simpson, and Brendan Dassey...
